5 Acting Allowance to be drawn by Mr. Raghavendra Rao for officiating as Private Secretary to His Highness in addition to his own duties.

6 Unless the pay of an appointment is fixed, the acting allowance for officiating in it cannot be calculated. The pay of an appointment means the pay which any particular officer would receive monthly if he held the appointment substantively (Article 25 M.S.R.). First of all therefore it is necessary to assume a rate of pay which a local officer would draw if appointed substantively as Private Secretary.

7. The pay of a local Private Secretary may perhaps be taken as equal to that of the General and Revenue Secretary i.e., 800-100-1200

8. As Mr. Raghavendra Rao draws the same rate of pay viz., 800-100-1200 together with a staff allowance of Rs. 200/- as Huzur Secretary, he would not get any acting allowance if appointed to act as Private Secretary ~~independently~~ independently of his duties as Huzur Secretary.

9. As he has been appointed to act as Private Secretary in addition to his own duties, the case is one of dual appointment under articles 103 & 104 MSR.

10. Under article 103 (ii) an acting allowance not exceeding Rs. 450 i.e., half the salary which he would draw as Private Secretary only, would be admissible.

Serial
No.

But the proviso contained in 103 (iii) will reduce this acting allowance to nothing unless the proviso is dispensed with by Government by a special declaration under Rule 1, Article 103 M.S.R.

11. Then again if the Private Secretary and Huz Secretary are regarded as on the same establishment Article 104 M.S.R. will stand in the way of granting any acting allowance.

12. To sum up, an acting allowance not exceeding Rs.450/- a month will be admissible in the present case only if a declaration under Rule 1, Article 103 M.S.R., is made and it is also declared that the appointments of Private Secretary and Huzur Secretary are not on the same establishment for the purposes of article 104 M.S.R. In applying the corresponding rule in the C.S.R. the maximum allowance admissible i.e., half the pay of the additional appointment is rarely if ever sanctioned. In this case, in my humble opinion, an acting allowance of Rs.200/- month may be sanctioned, if the Government of His Highness are prepared to make the two declarations referred to above.

15. If the premises are as assumed by the Financial Secretary, the conclusions that he draw seem to follow almost as a matter of course. But I do not see on what grounds it should be assumed that the pay of a "local" Private Secretary should be 800-1200 Rs, the same as is fixed for the H^g Secretary.
Why should a distinction be made between a 'local' & an 'outside' Officer?

17. The Private Secretary was felt 1200 Rs till 1899 when ^{the pay} ~~it~~ was to raise to 1400 Rs. But the work then done seems to have been of a different & less onerous sort. Since the installation of His Highness, it has never been less than 2000 Rs. It seems however to have been fixed per sonally for each incumbent.

I think that it may now be fixed as 1500 Rs or 2000 Rs as may seem suitable, and as Mr. Raghavendrakumar's Case would fall under Art. 104 of the M.S. Regs, he may be given an acting allow^{ce} of 20 p.c. on that sum. If this is so fixed, I would suggest that ~~the~~ it be kept on as the scale, all additions necessary being regarded as personal allowance.

18. Of course, this acting allowance will not affect the Staff allowance which is given as ^{2600 Rs} an equivalent of travelling charges.

19.

The duties of a Private Secretary to H H the Maharaja are more arduous and responsible than those of a Huzur Secretary. It goes without saying that the scale of pay for an Indian Officer should be higher than that fixed for the Huzur Secretary. The salary should be commensurate with the dignity & importance of the post.

It would be inconvenient to fix the scale of pay of an Indian Private Secretary as a permanent arrangement. Much will depend upon the circumstances of the moment and the officer to be selected.

Submitted to His Highness.

25 As desired in Mr. Campbell's D.O. letter dated the 23rd July 1910, the question of the acting allowance to be drawn by Mr. P. Raghavendra Rao as Officiating Private Secretary to His Highness has been discussed in the Financial Department, and has also been noted on by the Councillors, and I now submit the papers for His Highness' orders.

26. Mr. Chakravarti has noted that the acting allowance cannot be calculated unless the pay of the appointment is fixed, and that it is necessary first to assume a rate of pay which a local officer would draw if appointed substantively as Private Secretary. He suggests that this rate may perhaps be taken as equal to the rate of pay fixed for the General and Revenue Secretary to Government, viz. Rs. 800- $\frac{100}{1}$ -1200. As this is also the pay fixed for the appointment of Huzur Secretary, Mr. Chakravarti notes that, if the Private Secretary and the Huzur Secretary are regarded as officers on the same establishment, Mr. Raghavendra Rao will not, under Article 104, Mysore Serv.

Regulations, be entitled to any acting allowance;

Jan 4 97 (1710-11)

even if they are declared to be officers on separate establishments, the proviso contained in Article 103(iii) will operate against his drawing any acting allowance, unless the proviso is dispensed with by a declaration under Rule 1 of the article, in which case an acting allowance not exceeding Rs.450 may be given.

He adds that in applying the corresponding rule under ^(British) the Civil Service Regulations, the maximum allowance admissible is rarely, if ever, given, and suggests that an acting allowance of Rs.200 a month may be given if Government are prepared to make both the declarations above referred to.

27. The Second Councillor says that if the premises are as assumed by the Financial Secretary the conclusions drawn by him seem to follow as a matter of course, but that he does not see why the pay of a "local "Private Secretary" should be fixed at Rs.800

1,200, or why any difference should be made between a local and an outside officer in this respect. He observes that ^{Col.} ~~Mr.~~ Campbell was getting Rs.1,200 as Private Secretary till 1899 when the pay was raised to Rs.1,400, and that since the Installation of His Highness the present Maharaja the pay has never been

that the pay of the appointment may be fixed at Rs.1,500 or Rs.2,000, and that as the case is one of officers on the same establishment (Article 104) Mr. Raghavendra Rao may be given an acting allowance calculated at 20% of Rs.

1,500 or Rs.2,000.

28. The First Councillor remarks that the duties of the Private Secretary to His Highness are more arduous and responsible than those of the Huzur Secretary, and that the pay of the one should be higher than that of the other, but that it would be inconvenient to fix the scale of pay for an Indian Private Secretary as a permanent arrangement. He suggests that in the present case an acting allowance of Rs.
300 or Rs.400 may be given.

29. Both the Councillors are agreed that whatever acting allowance is given, it will not affect the staff allowance of Rs.200 drawn by Mr. Raghavendra Rao as Huzur Secretary.

6. I submit the papers for His Highness' orders.

7. For purposes of calculating acting allowances it is necessary to fix the scale of pay for a Private Secretary, even though this may be an imaginary figure. The main question in the present case is 8 1 49 of 1910-11 (11) of them seem to have been allowed Rs.1,200 per mensem.

Mr. Maconochie and Mr. Campbell are officers of the Indian Civil Service whose services probably could not have been obtained for this sum. As salaries go in Mysore, Rs.1,200 is the maximum salary of a Deputy Commissioner and of a Secretary to Government in the General and Revenue Department. Rs.1,400 is the salary of a Head of a Department, and Rs.1,500 the pay of a Judge of the Chief Court, at 2000 the pay of a Chief

*Judge - 1700-1800 is

38. In regard to the question whether the Private Secretary and the Huzur Secretary should be regarded as officers on the same establishment or on separate establishments, reference is solicited to the instructions communicated in Mr. Campbell's D.O. letter No.217 dated the 12th May 1910 about the Budget Estimates of the Private Secretary's and Huzur Secretary's establishments.

Order.

I have given this case my thought, and knowing as I do, the duties and responsibilities of Officers holding appointment as Secretaries on my personal Staff, I have no hesitation in saying that a clear claim for acting allowance exists in the present instance. There is a material increase in both duties and responsibilities, when an Officer holds the dual appointments of Private Secretary and Huzur Secretary and there can be no doubt about it. I am aware that a declaration under Art. 104 will appear to be inconsistent with the views expressed in connection with the Budget Estimates of my Private Secretary's establishment for the current year, but it can be justified and with reason too. In these circumstances I am of opinion that the grant of an acting allowance to Mr. Raghavendra Rao is both fair and correct. As regards the amount with reference to which this sum can be calculated, it seems to me, that it would be perfectly reasonable under existing conditions to consider a local Officer holding the appointment of my Private Secretary as one of the status of the head of a Department whose pay is generally understood to be Rs.1400/- per mensem. In the light of this view, an acting allowance of Rs.280 per mensem (20 % of Rs.1400/-) would be admissible to Mr. Raghavendra Rao during the time he continues to be Private Secretary in addition to being Huzur Secretary.
